

Online Listing DISTRIBUTION

When you input your listing into the MLS it reaches more than 96,000 agents across California. But your exposure doesn't have to end there.

CRMLS will automatically push your listings to these MLS-approved consumer facing websites.

For even MORE exposure, your broker can connect to ListHub to send their listings to over 85 publishers, with the potential to reach 900+ consumer-facing home search sites through their distribution networks.

Visit ListHub.com for more information about how to manage your online listing distribution.
